

April 12, 2013

Memorandum of Understanding for Technical Cooperation with Taiwan Water Corporation and Taipei Water Department

Delegates from Tokyo Suido Services Co., Ltd. (TSS) and Bureau of Waterworks, Tokyo Metropolitan Government (TMWB) visited Taipei to make a memorandum of understanding for technical cooperation with Taiwan Water Corporation and Taipei Water Department, which TMWB signed.

The MOU aims at enhancing mutual exchange of technology and expertise to further develop their business.

Tokyo Waterworks International Co., Ltd. (TWI) will accelerate international contribution to Taiwan based on their advanced technology and management know-how in cooperation with TSS and TMWB.

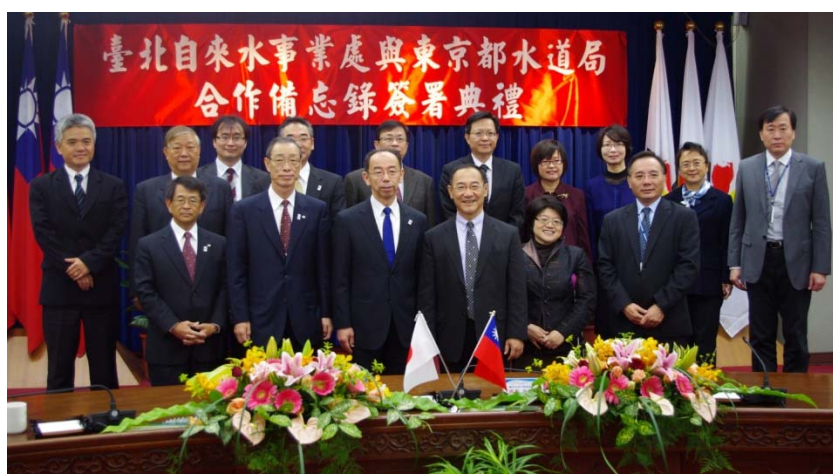

Photo of Delegates taken at Taipei Water Department

【See next page for TMWB press release】

Memorandum of Understanding for Technical Cooperation with Taiwan Water Corporation and Taipei Water Department

Memorandum of Understanding for Technical Cooperation with Taiwan Water Corporation and Taipei Water Department

Bureau of Waterworks, Tokyo Metropolitan Government (TMWB) signed today the following memorandum of understanding for technical cooperation with Taiwan Water Corporation (TWC), a water supplier in Taiwan, and is going to sign tomorrow a similar MOU with Taipei Water Department (TWD), another water supplier in Taiwan, to accelerate its international contribution through such partnership:

Outline of MOU

1. Objective

To enhance mutual exchanges of technology and expertise between employees to expand water supply business

2. Scope of Cooperation

- Water supply technology including non-revenue water reduction, anti-seismic measures and water treatment
- Customer satisfaction including public relations, education and cultural activities

3. Signing Ceremony

(Delegates)

Atsushi Masuko, Director of TMWB (middle right)

Fu-Tien Chen, President of TWC (middle left)

Nan-Tzer Hu, Vice President of TWC

(left-most)

Norio Iijima, President of Tokyo Waterworks International Co., Ltd. (right-most)

Note:

TWD: covers Taipei and some other areas

TWC: covers Taiwan except for the TWC area

(Contact)

Research Section, General Affairs Department,
TMWB

Tel: 03-5320-6336